

BRIDGING OUR DIVIDES:

Navigating Politics and Polarization in Turbulent Times

Introduction

Irit Felsen, PhD | Chair, Working Group on Trauma and Mental Health

Bridging Our Political Divide: How Liberals and Conservatives Can Understand Each Other and Find Common Ground

Kenneth Barish, PhD | Clinical Professor of Psychology, Weill Cornell Medical College

Coexistence during Polarized Times: Finding Dignity in Self and Other in Small and Large Groups

Kavita Avula, PsyD, CGP | President, Therapist Beyond Borders

Power's Entrapment: War and the Pathologies of Power

Oded Naaman, PhD | Senior Professor, Philosophy Department, Hebrew University of Jerusalem

02.10.2025

2:00 - 4:00 PM EST

This is an online event. Register via the following link or QR code:

<https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/N50A5VsXQzWemaGMzyuJSA>

NGO
Committee on
Mental Health

Investing in Global
Mental Health

A Coalition NGO in Consultative Status with the United Nations Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) under the auspices of the Conference of Non-Governmental Organization (CONGO)